Background

The University frequently has property that is either unclaimed or abandoned. Virginia Code §23.1-or disposal of property. This policy states the policies and procedures to effectuate the disposal of this property.

Policy

The University shall compliantly dispose of unclaimed or abandoned property in a prudent manner accounting for the rights of individuals and the recognition of the needs of the University.

Definitions

- 1. Abandoned Property includes all property that the owner voluntarily relinquishes possession. Abandoned property shall include, but not be limited to, all property left by a faculty or staff member in a University facility after separation from the University. Abandoned property shall further include all items remaining in a room of a residence hall upon the earlier of the conclusion of the housing agreement or the student's separation from the University.
- 2. Lost Property is property that the owner does not voluntarily relinquish due to accident, oversight, inadvertence, or negligence, and the property owner is unaware of the property's whereabouts.

Specific Requirements

- 1. The University shall store all lost and abandoned property at a centralized location and shall publish how lost or abandoned property can be recovered.
- 2. In instances in which ownership of lost property can be reasonably determined, the University shall notify the owner of the property's recovery. Notification by e-mail at the person's last known e-mail address shall be sufficient. No notice is required when property is abandoned.
- 3. In the case of either lost or abandoned property, the University shall retain the property a minimum of 120 calendar days after the property is recovered by the University.
