

PAPERS User Guide GLOSSARY

PAPERS User Guide GLOSSARY

Located at the top of the screen with the tabs to major sections of Navigation Bar

the site – Home, Postings, Applicants, Hiring Proposals, My Profile, Help.

Positon Allocation Tab The section to identify the reason for the vacancy and salary.

A category of job that you hire applicants into; Teaching and Position Type

Research Faculty, Administrative/Professional Faculty, and Staff.

The combination of a requisition and an announcement of a position. Posting

Posting Documents This allows the hiring manager to attach additional documents to the posting such as organizational chart, and budget adjustment form.

The applicant's details of education level, skills, preferences, Profile availability, etc. for interest in a specific posting.

The iterative process of reviewing submitted applications to a job Selection Process posting with the intent of narrowing hired.

Appears on the left and right side of the main work area. Provides Sidebar Menus links to sections within the system or helpful resources.

Supplemental Additional questions added to the application that provide additional Questions information on which to assess the applicant.

PAPERS User Guide GLOSSARY

Template A generic, class, or specific sets of job description information for a job posting.

User Internal system user (employee) with credentials to log into the User

Portal.

System based permissions to perform certain actions assigned for User Roles

System based permissions to perform certain actions assigned for User Roles specific functions. Also called user groups. Examples of user roles are Dept Chair/HM, Budget Unit Director and, Hiring Manager,

Search Committee Chair, etc.

Watch List Allows users to watch or track the progress of postings.

Workflow A sequence of steps in the recruitment process.

Workflow State The status of the posting, applications review, and hiring proposal.

Workflow State Owner The person responsible for moving the workflow forward.