

UNDERSTANDING YOUR TRANSFER EVALUATION

REQUIREMENTS FOR UNDERGRADUATE DEGREES

General education courses are a required component of all University degrees. These courses are listed in the University catalog. Often, different academic departments require specific general education courses be selected from the options listed. To understand which general education courses are required to earn a specific degree, students should review the program specific curriculum. International students whose